CHAPTER 69:01

EXCHEQUER AND AUDIT ACT

20 of 1959. An Act to provide for the control and management of the public finances of Trinidad and Tobago; for the duties and powers of the Auditor General; for the collection, issue and payment of public moneys; for the audit of public accounts and the protection and recovery of public property; for the control of the powers of statutory bodies; and for matters connected therewith.

Commencement.
[166/1959].

[15TH DECEMBER 1959]

PART I

PRELIMINARY

Short title.

1. This Act may be cited as the Exchequer and Audit Act.

Interpretation.
[8/1962
97/1963
23 of 1998].

2. In this Act—

“accounting officer” means any person appointed by the Treasury and charged with the duty of accounting for any service in respect of which moneys have been appropriated by the Constitution or by Parliament, or any person to whom issues are made from the Exchequer Account;

“appropriate Minister” means in relation to a statutory body the Minister exercising authority under law with respect to such statutory body;

“Appropriation Act” means any enactment authorising the issue of moneys from the Consolidated Fund to meet expenditure of the Government, and includes a provision of any enactment or of the Constitution which charges expenditure on that Fund;

“appropriate Service Commission” means whichever of the service commissions established by the Constitution has the power to exercise disciplinary action over a person against whom a surcharge under this Act is to be made, and where

- such person is no longer in the employment of the State, the Commission which last had such power;
- “Consolidated Fund” means the Consolidated Fund of the State (including the growing produce thereof);
- “Auditor General” means the person appointed as such under the Constitution;
- “Exchequer Account” means the account provided for in section 12;
- “Joint Consolidated Fund” and “Joint Miscellaneous Fund” mean respectively the said Funds operated by the Crown Agents;
- “Minister” means the Minister responsible for Finance;
- “officer” means any person in the employment of the State;
- “period of account” means, in respect of the accounts referred to in section 24(1), the period of nine months ending on 30th September, 1998 and thereafter the period of twelve months ending on 30th September in every year following and in respect of other accounts such period of twelve months (or such lesser period) as may be prescribed;
- “public moneys” include—
- (a) revenue;
 - (b) any trust or other moneys held, whether temporarily or otherwise, by an officer in his official capacity either alone or jointly with any other person, whether an officer or not;
- “receiver of revenue” means an officer appointed by the Treasury for the collection of, and for the accounting for, such items of revenue as the Treasury may specify;
- “revenue” means all tolls, duties, fees, licences, taxes, imports, royalties, rents, penalties, forfeitures, dues and all other receipts of the State from whatever source arising, over which Parliament has power of appropriation, including the proceeds of all loans raised;
- “statutory body” means any municipality, county council, board, commission or similar body corporate established and incorporated by an Act;

“Treasury” means the Minister, and includes such officer or officers in the Ministry of Finance as may be deputed by the Minister to exercise powers and to perform duties under this Act.

PART II

CONTROL AND MANAGEMENT OF PUBLIC FINANCES

Management of the Public Finances. [8/1962].

3. The Minister shall, subject to the Constitution and this Act, have the management of the Consolidated Fund and the supervision, control and direction of all matters relating to the financial affairs of the State which are not by law assigned to any other Minister.

Powers of the Treasury. [8/1962].

4. (1) All persons concerned in the collection, receipt, custody and payment or issue of public moneys, stores, stamps, securities or other State property shall obey all such instructions as they may from time to time receive from the Treasury in respect of public moneys, stores, stamps, securities or other State property, or accounting for the same.

(2) The Permanent Secretary to the Minister, or any officer in the Treasury authorised by him, shall be entitled to inspect all offices and to have such access to all official books, documents and other records as may be necessary for the exercise of the powers and duties of the Treasury under this Act.

(3) The Treasury shall so superintend the expenditure of public moneys as to ensure that proper arrangements for accounting to the House for such expenditure are made.

Control of Expenditure and Revenue.

5. (1) Save as may otherwise be provided by this or any other law no expenditure involving a charge on the Consolidated Fund shall be incurred, and no sums due to the Consolidated Fund shall be remitted, without the general or specific authority of the Treasury.

(2) Notwithstanding any general or specific authority which may have been given by him, it shall be within the discretion of the Minister to limit or suspend any expenditure charged under any Appropriation Act or by virtue of section 18 and so authorised if in his opinion the exigencies of the financial situation render such limitation or suspension necessary.

6. No public or official account shall be opened in any bank without the authority in writing of the Treasury and no bank shall permit an overdraft on any public or official account unless authorised to do so in writing by the Treasury. Bank Account.

PART III

DUTIES AND POWERS OF THE AUDITOR GENERAL

7. The Auditor General shall not be capable while holding the said office of holding any other office of emolument in the service of the State. Restriction on Auditor General. [8/1962].

8. (1) Save as is otherwise provided in the Constitution the provisions of the law and regulations in force relating to the public service shall apply to the Auditor General. Tenure of Office of Auditor General. [8/1962].

(2) Where the Auditor General is removed from office under the Constitution the Minister shall make a full statement of the reasons therefor at the first opportunity to Parliament.

9. (1) The Auditor General shall examine, inquire into and audit the accounts of all accounting officers and receivers of revenue and all persons entrusted with the assessment of, collection, receipt, custody, issue or payment of public moneys, or with the receipt, custody, issue, sale, transfer or delivery of any stamps, securities, stores or other State property. Examination by Auditor General. [8/1962].

(2) The Auditor General shall satisfy himself that—

- (a) all reasonable precautions have been taken to safeguard the collection of public moneys and that the laws, directions and instructions relating thereto have been duly observed;
- (b) all issues and payments were made in accordance with proper authority and that all payments were properly chargeable and are supported by sufficient vouchers or proof of payment;

- (c) all money expended has been applied to the purpose or purposes for which the same was granted by Parliament and that such expenditure conforms to the authority which governs it and has been incurred with due regard to the avoidance of waste and extravagance;
- (d) essential records are maintained and the rules and procedures framed and applied are sufficient to safeguard the control of stores and other State property.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsections (1) and (2) the Auditor General may, after satisfying himself that the vouchers have been examined and certified as correct by the accounting department, in his discretion and having regard to the character of the departmental examination, in any particular case admit the sums so certified in support of the charges to which they relate without further examination; but if the Minister desires the vouchers or any of them to be examined in greater detail the Auditor General shall take action accordingly.

(4) Where a voucher has been lost or destroyed, or where an existing voucher is defective in any respect, the Auditor General, is satisfied with the explanation given by the responsible officer, may dispense with the production of a voucher, or in the case of a defective voucher, accept such voucher.

(5) If the Auditor General is required by the Minister to ascertain whether any expenditure included in any appropriation account is supported by the authority of the Treasury, he shall examine that expenditure with that object, and shall report to the Minister any expenditure which appears upon the examination to have been incurred without the authority, and any such unauthorised expenditure shall, unless sanctioned by the Minister, be regarded as not being properly chargeable to a grant of Parliament, and shall be so reported to Parliament.

Powers of Auditor
General.
[8/1962].

10. (1) In the exercise of his duties under this Act the Auditor General shall be entitled—

- (a) to call upon any officer for any explanations and information which the Auditor General may

- require in order to enable him to discharge his duties;
- (b) to authorise any officer on his behalf to conduct any inquiry, examination or audit, and such officer shall report thereon to the Auditor General;
 - (c) to send for and have the custody of any books, accounts, vouchers or papers under the control of any officer relating to or in any wise concerning the public accounts, and to keep such books, accounts, vouchers or papers for such time as he may require them;
 - (d) to require any department concerned to furnish him from time to time or at regular periods with accounts of the transactions of such department up to such date as he may specify;
 - (e) without payment of any fee, to cause search to be made in and extracts to be taken from any book, document or record in any public office;
 - (f) to lay before the Attorney General a case in writing as to any question regarding the interpretation of any written law concerning the powers of the Auditor General or the discharge of his duties, and the Attorney General shall give a written opinion upon such case;
 - (g) to require every person employed in his office who has to examine the accounts of a department to comply with any security requirements applicable thereto and to take any oath of secrecy required to be taken by persons employed in that department.

(2) In the exercise of his duties under this Act the Auditor General, or any person duly authorised by him in writing, shall have access to all records, books, vouchers, documents, cash, stamps, securities, stores or other State property in the possession of any officer.

Staff and delegation of functions of the Auditor General. [8/1962].

11. (1) There shall be appointed from time to time such numbers of officers and servants as may be necessary for the purposes of this Act.

(2) Anything which, under the authority of this Act, is directed to be done by the Auditor General, other than the certifying and reporting of accounts required by this Act or the Constitution to be laid before the House, may be done by any officer of his staff so authorised by him.

PART IV

COLLECTION, ISSUE AND PAYMENT OF PUBLIC MONEYS

Exchequer Account.

12. (1) An account styled “the Exchequer Account” shall be kept with such bank or banks as the Treasury shall from time to time determine.

(2) Subject to section 18, issues out of the Exchequer Account for the public service shall be in accordance with orders directed by the Treasury to such bank or banks.

Consolidated Fund. [8/1962].

13. All revenue shall be paid, at such times and in such manner as the Treasury may direct, into the Exchequer Account and the revenue shall form the Consolidated Fund, but—

- (a) receivers of revenue may, if authorised by the Treasury to do so, pay as deductions from gross revenue such sums as may be required for drawbacks, repayments or discounts;
- (b) the Treasury may, as it thinks fit, from time to time authorise receivers of revenue who are accounting officers to defray in the first instance from revenue collected by them, expenditure for which they are accountable, and the amount of such revenue so expended shall be subsequently paid to the Exchequer Account from the moneys provided for the purposes of such expenditure;
- (c) where the Treasury directs that any revenue, whether received by way of duty, fee, penalty or proceeds of sale, or by way of an extra or unusual receipt, shall be applied as an appropriation in aid of money provided by Parliament for any purpose, such revenue shall be deemed to be money provided by Parliament for that purpose, and shall, without being paid into the Exchequer Account, be applied, audited and dealt with accordingly, and, so far as they are not in fact so applied, shall be paid into the Exchequer Account; and where the revenue so directed to be applied as appropriations in aid of money provided by Parliament for any purpose exceeds in a financial year the amount sanctioned by Parliament to be applied to such purpose, the excess so realised shall be paid into the Exchequer Account.

14. Statements showing payments into and issues from the Exchequer Account shall be rendered by every bank, at which such an account is maintained, to the Treasury and the Auditor General at such intervals and in such form as the Treasury may direct.

Bank Return.
[8/1962].

15. (1) Parliament may from time to time by resolution authorise the Minister to borrow, by means of advances from a bank, money to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate the sum specified in that behalf in the resolution to meet the current requirements of the Consolidated Fund.

Advances to Government.
[52/1962
8/1962].

(2) The principal and interest of all such advances shall be a charge on the Consolidated Fund.

(3) Where by resolution in accordance with this section or in pursuance of any Act, power to borrow money by means of advances from a bank is conferred on the Minister, such power may be exercised by means of a fluctuating overdraft on the Exchequer Account.

16. (1) The Minister may establish a Contingencies Fund by issues from the Consolidated Fund not exceeding in the aggregate one million five hundred thousand dollars or such greater sum as Parliament may by resolution approve, to defray unforeseen expenditure.

Establishment of Contingencies
Fund.
[8/1962].

- (2) If the Minister is satisfied that—
- (a) certain expenditure is likely to be incurred in a financial year upon a service—
 - (i) thereby causing an excess on the sum provided for that service by the Appropriation Act for that year; or
 - (ii) which, being in respect of a new service, was not provided for by the Appropriation Act relating to that year; and
 - (b) the circumstances are such that the expenditure cannot without injury to the public interest be postponed until adequate provision is made by Parliament, the Minister may authorise such expenditure to be met by an advance from the Contingencies Fund.

(3) For the purpose only of enabling the sum referred to in subsection (1) to be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund for the purpose of defraying unforeseen expenditure in accordance with this section, that expenditure is hereby charged on the Consolidated Fund.

(4) Where any advance is made in accordance with subsection (2), a supplementary estimate shall be presented and a Supplementary Appropriation Bill shall be introduced as soon as possible for the purpose of replacing the amount so advanced.

Treasury
deposits.
[8/1962].

17. (1) Pending repayment or application to the purposes for which they were deposited, the Minister may authorise use of the balances held on deposit in respect of any special funds established by Act or otherwise or of any other deposits (other than trust funds or the balances of the Consolidated Fund) to make advances—

- (a) on behalf of, and recoverable from other Governments;
- (b) to or on account of trusts or other funds administered by the Government, or to, or on behalf of, public bodies, institutions or individuals, where the advances are in the public interest and are recoverable within a period not exceeding twelve months after the close of the financial year in which the advances are made.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in subsection (1), the Minister may from time to time authorise the issue of amounts from the Consolidated Fund not exceeding in the aggregate five million dollars to augment the cash balance held on deposit to meet payments on account of the said deposits or on account of advances authorised as in subsection (1), and the said sum of five million dollars or such portion thereof as the Minister may determine shall from time to time be repaid into the Consolidated Fund.

(3) For the purpose only of enabling amounts to be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund under subsection (2) to meet the said payments, those payments are hereby charged on the Consolidated Fund.

18. (1) Where moneys are authorised by an Appropriation Act to be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund the Treasury may, by requisition from time to time, authorise and require the Auditor General to grant credits on the Exchequer Account not exceeding on the whole the amount authorised by the Treasury.

Granting credits on the Exchequer
Account.
[8/1962].

(2) The Auditor General if satisfied that—

- (a) the sums authorised by the Treasury have been lawfully authorised in accordance with the provisions of an Appropriation Act or of sections 22 and 23; and
- (b) the amount or amounts requisitioned by the Treasury do not exceed the sum so authorised, shall grant the credit on the Exchequer Account.

(3) The credits so granted by the Auditor General shall be the necessary authority to issue from the Exchequer Account the amount specified in the credits in accordance with the directions of the Treasury.

Issues from the Exchequer Account to be paid into bank account.

19. All issues from the Exchequer Account in terms of this Act shall be paid into such other bank account or accounts as the Treasury may direct.

Overdraft on the Exchequer Account.

20. The powers conferred by any general or specific Loans Act to borrow money by means of advances from a bank may be exercised by means of fluctuating overdraft on the Exchequer Account.

Issue from the Consolidated Fund.

21. No part of the Consolidated Fund shall be issued except under and in accordance with this Act.

Investment of moneys in the Consolidated Fund. [8/1962].

22. (1) The Minister may authorise the investment of sums forming part of the Consolidated Fund with a bank either at call or subject to notice not exceeding twelve months or with the Joint Miscellaneous Fund or the Joint Consolidated Fund, or in any of the investments authorised by the Trustee Ordinance for the investment of trust funds.

Ch.8 No.3. 1950 Ed.

(2) Investments made under this section shall continue to form part of the Consolidated Fund and when any such investment is realised the proceeds shall be paid by the Treasury into the Exchequer Account.

Erroneous payments. [8/1962].

23. Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act, the Minister may, with the concurrence of the Auditor General, authorise the withdrawals from the Exchequer Account of such sums as may be required to repay or adjust amounts erroneously paid into the Exchequer Account and such sums are hereby charged on the Consolidated Fund.

PART V

AUDIT OF PUBLIC ACCOUNTS AND THE PROTECTION AND RECOVERY OF PUBLIC PROPERTY

Annual Accounts. [8/1962 23 of 1998].

24. (1) Within a period of four months after 30th September in each year, or such longer period thereafter as Parliament may by resolution, appoint—

(a) the Treasury shall cause to be transmitted to the Auditor General accounts showing fully the financial position of Trinidad and Tobago on the said 31st December, which shall include—

- (i) the Exchequer Account;
 - (ii) the statement of public debt;
 - (iii) the statement of loans from revenue;
 - (iv) the statement of revenue showing the sums estimated to be received into the Exchequer Account and the sums actually so received in the period of account;
 - (v) the statement of expenditure, showing the sums to be issued out of the Exchequer Account and the sums actually so issued in the period of account;
 - (vi) the statement of the loans or credits guaranteed by the State;
 - (vii) the statement of assets and liabilities;
 - (viii) such other statements as Parliament may from time to time require;
- (b) accounting officers shall prepare and transmit to the Auditor General appropriation accounts of the moneys expended under the votes for which they were responsible, showing the services for which the money was voted, the sums actually expended on each such service during the period of account, and the state of each vote compared with appropriation. Each such appropriation account shall contain an explanatory statement for any variation between the expenditure and the sum voted, and shall contain such other information and shall be in such form as the Treasury may direct and such statement as well as the appropriation account shall be signed by the accounting officer;
- (c) receivers of revenue shall prepare and transmit to the Auditor General statements of their receipts and disbursements in such form as the Treasury may direct.

(2) Within a period of four months after the close of such period of account as may be prescribed in any law relating thereto or, in the absence of such law, such period of account as the Treasury may prescribe—

- (a) any officer administering a fund established under the provision of section 43 shall, in respect of the fund, prepare, sign and transmit to the Auditor General an account relating to the period of account in such form as the Treasury may from time to time direct;
- (b) any officer administering any trust or other fund or account not provided for in this section shall, if so directed by the Treasury, prepare, sign and transmit to the Auditor General an account in such form as the Treasury may from time to time direct.

Annual Report of the Auditor
General.
[8/1962
23 of 1998].

25. (1) On receipt of the accounts prescribed by section 24, the Auditor General shall cause them to be examined and audited and shall, within a period of seven months after 30th September in each year or such longer period thereafter as Parliament may by resolution appoint, prepare and transmit to the Minister a report upon his examination and audit of all accounts relating to public moneys, stamps, securities, stores and other State property, together with certified copies of each of the said accounts.

(2) The Auditor General shall set out in his annual report all payments made out of public moneys to a member of each House of Parliament (other than the salary and any allowances paid to him as a Minister, President or Deputy President of the Senate, Speaker or Deputy Speaker of the House, Parliamentary Secretary or as a member, and any pension paid to such member) by stating the name of the member receiving the payment, the total amount which he has received and the service or services in respect of which the payment was made.

(3) The Minister shall lay the report of the Auditor General on the table of Parliament within thirty days of its receipt by him or, if Parliament is not sitting, within thirty days after the commencement of the next sitting.

(4) The Auditor General may at any time if it appears to him desirable, transmit a special report to the Minister for presentation in like manner to Parliament. Such special report may be made on any matter incidental to his powers and duties under this Act.

(5) If the Minister does not within the time prescribed lay such annual or special report on the table of Parliament, the Auditor General shall forthwith transmit the report to the Speaker of Parliament, to be by him presented to the House.

26. If at any time it appears to the Auditor General that any irregularities have occurred in the receipt, custody or expenditure of public moneys or in the receipt, custody, issue, sale, transfer or delivery of any stamps, securities, stores or other State property, or in the accounting for the same, he shall immediately bring the matter to the notice of the Treasury.

Notification of irregularities to the Treasury. [8/1962].

27. (1) If it appears to the Minister that any person who is or was in the employment of the State—

Surcharge by Minister. [8/1962, 97/1963].

- (a) has failed to collect any moneys owing to the State for the collection of which he is or was responsible;
- (b) is or was responsible for any improper payment of public moneys or for any payment of such moneys which is not duly vouched; or
- (c) is or was responsible for any deficiency in, or for the destruction of, any public moneys, stamps, securities, stores or other State property, and if a satisfactory explanation is not, within a period specified by him, furnished to the Minister with regard to the failure to collect improper payment, payment not duly vouched, deficiency or destruction, the Minister may surcharge against the said person the amount of any such amount not collected, payment, deficiency, or loss or the value of the property destroyed, as the case may be.

(2) The amount of any surcharge made under this section shall, subject to the provisions of section 29, be a debt due to the State from the person against whom the surcharge is made.

Notification of surcharge. [8/1962 97/1963].

28. The Minister shall cause the head of the department of the person surcharged to be notified of any surcharge made under section 27 and the head of department shall thereupon notify the person surcharged and shall recover the amount from such person.

Withdrawal of surcharge. [8/1962 97/1963].

29. The Minister may at any time withdraw any surcharge in respect of which a satisfactory explanation has been received or if it otherwise appears that no surcharge should have been made, and shall at once cause the head of department to be notified of the withdrawal.

Recovery of surcharge. [8/1962].

30. The amount of any surcharge made under section 27 may, subject to section 29, be sued for and recovered in any Court of competent jurisdiction as a debt due to the State by action at the suit of the Attorney General, or the Minister may with the approval of the appropriate Service Commission direct that the amount of the surcharge shall be recovered by equal monthly instalments by deductions from the salary of the officer in such amount, not exceeding one-sixth of the monthly salary of the officer, as the Minister shall authorise.

PART VI

CONTROL OF THE FINANCE OF STATUTORY BODIES

Audit of accounts of statutory bodies. [8/1962].

31. (1) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other written law, the accounts of any statutory body shall be audited by the Auditor General, if Parliament by resolution so directs.

(2) In the exercise of his duties under this section the Auditor General—

- (a) shall have, in relation to such statutory body and its members, officers and employees, the same discretion and powers as are conferred on him by sections 9 and 10 in relation to public moneys, stamps, securities, stores or other State property;
- (b) may authorise any person publicly carrying on the profession of accountant or any officer to inspect, examine or audit the books and accounts of any statutory body which he may be required to examine and audit pursuant to this section and such person or officer shall report thereon to the Auditor General in such manner as the Auditor General may direct.

(3) The Auditor General shall report on his examination and audit of the accounts referred to in this section and shall transmit the report to the appropriate Minister for presentation to Parliament. However, the appropriate Minister shall obtain the observations of the statutory body on any matter to which attention has been called by the Auditor General in his report and the observations shall be presented to Parliament with the report; and if the appropriate Minister fails within a reasonable time to present the report to Parliament, the Auditor General shall transmit the report to the Speaker of Parliament to be by him presented to the House.

(4) The appropriate Minister may exercise in respect of the members, or any member or members of any statutory body, or of any officer, employee, or servant of any statutory body, the accounts of which have been audited by the Auditor General, whether or not in pursuance of a resolution of Parliament, the same power of surcharge as the Minister may exercise in accordance with the provisions of section 27 in respect of a person who is or who was in the employment of the State; for this purpose, every such member, officer, employee or servant shall be deemed to be such a person, and references in the said sections to moneys owing to the State and to public moneys, stamps, securities, stores or other State property shall be construed as references to moneys owing to the said statutory body, and to moneys, stamps, securities, stores or other State property of the said statutory board; and the provisions of sections 27, 28, 29 and 30 shall, in any such case, apply accordingly, and in the application references to “the Minister” shall be construed as reference to “the appropriate Minister”

32. (1) Subject to subsection (2), sections 33 to 40 shall apply to every statutory body notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law.

[Application of certain sections to statutory bodies. [18 of 1966 18 of 1998].

Ch. 63:05. (2) Sections 37 and 38 shall not apply to the National Agricultural Marketing and Development Corporation, established by the National Agricultural Marketing and Development Corporation Act, or to NALIS established by the National Library and Information Systems Act.

Ch. 40:01.

Capital budget.
[8/1962].

33. (1) Every statutory body shall, before the commencement of each financial year of the statutory body, submit to the appropriate Minister for his approval and that of the Minister, a budget relating to capital expenditure and the financing thereof for each such year in such form as the Minister may from time to time prescribe.

(2) The appropriate Minister shall lay the budget, as approved by him and the Minister, before Parliament within fourteen days of the approval or, if Parliament is not then in session, within fourteen days after the commencement of its next sitting.

(3) Such approved budget may, with the approval of the appropriate Minister, be altered by the statutory body concerned; but the total expenditure under the budget may not exceed that approved by the appropriate Minister and the Minister under subsection (1).

Income and
budget.

34. (1) Every statutory body shall, before the commencement of each financial year of the statutory body, submit for approval of the appropriate Minister and the Minister an income and expenditure budget in relation to such year in such form as the Minister may prescribe.

(2) Every statutory body shall, at such time as the appropriate Minister may direct, furnish him with such further information in relation to its income and expenditure budget as he may require.

(3) The income and expenditure budget as approved by the appropriate Minister shall be the income and expenditure budget of the statutory body concerned for the financial year to which it relates and may not be altered without the approval of the appropriate Minister.

35. The Treasury may, out of moneys provided by Parliament for the purpose, advance to any statutory body such sums as may be necessary to carry out any of its powers, duties, and functions. Such advances shall be made on such terms and conditions as the Minister may determine.

Advances.
[8/1962].

36. (1) No statutory body shall borrow temporarily by way of bank overdraft or otherwise without the sanction of the Minister.

Borrowings.

(2) No statutory body shall raise moneys by way of a loan or issue of securities without the prior approval of the appropriate Minister and of the Minister; but this subsection shall not apply to any loan made by, or issue of securities to, the State.

37. (1) Subject to section 32(2), if the Minister with the approval of the President so directs, a statutory body shall pay to the Treasury for credit of the Consolidated Fund as much of the money held by it for the purposes of the statutory body as the appropriate Minister and the Minister consider to be in excess of the amount required for such purposes.

Payment of surplus funds to Consolidated
Fund.

(2) Any money paid to the Treasury in terms of subsection (1) shall be applied towards the discharge of any obligation of the statutory body concerned to the State or to such other purposes as the Minister may direct.

38. (1) Subject to section 32(2), the Minister may, with the concurrence of the appropriate Minister, direct a statutory body to pay all or any part of its moneys to the Treasury and the statutory body shall comply with the directions.

Deposits to special account.

(2) Any moneys paid to the Treasury in terms of subsection (1) shall be placed to the credit of a special account in the name of the statutory body concerned, and the Minister may pay out of the account for the purposes of the statutory body all or any part of such moneys.

39. (1) If no provision is made in the law under which a statutory body is established for the appointment of an auditor of its accounts and financial transactions, the Minister may appoint an auditor to audit such accounts and financial transactions.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any other law, the Auditor General may be appointed under subsection (1).

(3) An audit fee—

(a) determined by the Treasury after consultation with the Auditor General, in respect of the services, if any, of the Auditor General;

(b) equal to the fee charged by any other auditor appointed in terms of this section, shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund by the statutory body, the accounts of which have been audited in pursuance of this section.

Annual reports and accounts. [8/1962].

40. (1) Every statutory body shall, as soon as possible and in any case not later than six months after the termination of each financial year of the statutory body, submit an annual report to the appropriate Minister in such form as that Minister may from time to time prescribe.

(2) The report shall include a balance sheet, such other statements of account as the Minister may from time to time require, and the annual report of the auditor of the statutory body and shall be laid by the appropriate Minister before Parliament within fourteen days of its receipt by him or, if Parliament is not then in session, within fourteen days after the commencement of its next sitting.

Examination of accounts of Auditor General's Department.

41. The accounts of the Department of the Auditor General shall be audited and reported on by the Treasury, and the provisions of sections 10 and 25 shall apply in relation to the exercise of those functions by the Treasury as they apply in relation to the audit and reports made by the Auditor General.

PART VII

GENERAL

Duration of Appropriation Act. [8/1962].

42. Unless special provision to the contrary is made in any Appropriation Act, every appropriation by Parliament of public moneys for the service of any financial year shall lapse and cease to have any effect at the close of that period, and, except as otherwise provided in this Act, the unexpended balance of any moneys withdrawn from the Exchequer Account shall be surrendered to the Exchequer Account.

43. (1) The funds set out in the First Schedule shall be deemed to have been established in accordance with this section and the provisions of subsection (3) shall apply to receipts, earnings and accruals and to the balances of the funds.

Establishment of Funds. [8/1962]. First Schedule.

(2) Whenever moneys are appropriated by Parliament to establish a fund, the Treasury may establish a fund to which moneys so appropriated may be credited and from which moneys may be expended for the purposes for which the fund was established, and the Minister shall by Order amend the First Schedule by the addition of the title of the fund.

(3) Unless the Treasury otherwise directs, and notwithstanding sections 13 and 42, neither the receipts, earnings, nor accruals of funds established or deemed to have been established in terms of this section, nor the balances of the funds at the close of each financial year, shall be paid into the Consolidated Fund, but shall be retained for the purposes of the funds.

(4) The Minister may by Order amend the First Schedule by the deletion therefrom of the title of any fund which may lawfully be absorbed into and form part of the Consolidated Fund or which has otherwise ceased to exist.

44. There shall be credited to the Consolidated Fund the amounts standing to the credit at the commencement of this Act of the accounts set out in the Second Schedule.

Transfer of certain accounts to the Consolidated Fund. Second Schedule.

45. (1) The Minister may make Regulations (to be called Financial Regulations) as may appear to him to be necessary or expedient for the proper carrying out of the intent and provisions of this Act.

Regulations. [8/1962].

(2) All Regulations made under this section shall be laid before Parliament as soon as may be after they are made.

Saving.

46. Nothing in this Act shall extend or abridge or alter the rights and powers of the State to control, suspend or prevent the execution of any process or proceedings for recovering money due to the State.

FINANCIAL REGULATIONS

made under section 45(1)

Citation. 1. These Regulations may be cited as the Financial Regulations.

Interpretation. 2. In these Regulations—
“collector of revenue” means any person appointed by a receiver of revenue to collect public moneys and includes any person to whom a collector may delegate a part of his duties;
“credit to vote” means a credit to expenditure sub-heads or items for the purpose of adjusting charges incorrectly debited to expenditure in the accounts of the same financial year;
“department” means a Ministry or a non-Ministerial Department;
“grant of credits” means credits on the Exchequer Account granted by the Auditor General under the provisions of section 18 of the Act;
“imprest” means money advanced by the Treasury to a person to enable that person to carry out the business of the State.

PART I

ACCOUNTING OFFICERS

Appointment of accounting officers. 3. An accounting officer shall be appointed by a letter addressed personally to him by the Treasury setting out in detail his duties and responsibilities.

Responsibilities of accounting officers. 4. An accounting officer shall be responsible for ensuring—
(a) that the financial business of the State for which he is responsible is properly conducted; and
(b) that public funds entrusted to his care are properly safe-guarded and are applied only to the purposes intended by Parliament.

Pecuniary responsibilities of accounting officer. 5. All accounting officers are personally and pecuniarily responsible for—
(a) the due performance of the financial duties of their departments;

- (b) the proper collection and custody of all public moneys receivable by them; and
- (c) for any accounts rendered by them or under their authority.

6. An accounting officer is not absolved from his responsibility for complying or securing compliance with the Act, these Regulations and any instructions given to him, or by him within the scope of his authority, by reason of the responsibility of the Auditor General to check and report any shortcomings in connection with the public accounts or finances.

Accounting officer not absolved from responsibility because of check by Audit.

7. No accounting officer shall be relieved from responsibility for an act which he is required by the Act, these Regulations or any instructions to perform, the performance of which he has delegated to an officer subordinate to him.

Duties entrusted to subordinates.

8. It is the duty of an accounting officer to—

- (a) ensure that the proper system of accounting as prescribed by the Treasury is established and maintained;
- (b) exercise supervision over the receipt of public revenue, ensure its punctual collection and bring promptly, to account under the proper heads and sub-heads, whether as revenue or other receipts, all moneys for which he is accountable;
- (c) make proper provision for the safekeeping of public moneys, securities, stamps, stamp-dies, revenue receipts, licences and other such things;
- (d) ensure that all cash and stamps in his charge are checked and the amounts verified with the balance shown in the cash book and stamp register;
- (e) ensure that the officer responsible for cash and stamps promptly brings to account as a receipt any cash or stamps found in excess of the balances shown in the cash book or stamp register and makes good any deficiency in cash or stamps for which he is responsible;

Duties of accounting officer.

- (f) ensure that no payment is made which is not covered by proper authority;
- (g) ensure that all disbursements of the State are charged in the accounts under the proper heads and sub-heads of the Estimates or other approved classifications;
- (h) ensure that the maximum imprest authorised by the Treasury is not exceeded without the prior approval of the Treasury;
- (i) exercise strict supervision over all officers under his authority entrusted with the receipt and expenditure of public moneys, and to take precautions, by the maintenance of efficient checks, against negligence and fraud;
- (j) see that all books are correctly posted and kept up-to-date and that such financial statements as are required by these Regulations are promptly prepared;
- (k) report to the Treasury any apparent defect in the procedure of revenue collecting or any apparent waste or extravagance in expenditure which comes to his notice;
- (l) produce all books of account, records, paid cheques or vouchers in his charge when required by the Treasury or the Auditor General or their duly authorised officers, and reply promptly and fully to any queries addressed by them to him.

Inspection of accounts.

9. (1) The Treasury shall, from time to time, without giving any notice cause inspection of the accounts of departments or officers.

(2) The Minister shall be informed of any irregularity connected with the public accounts that may have been discovered.

(3) Accounting officers shall cause surprise inspections to be made of the accounts of their subordinates and ensure that there are other independent and effective checks of the cash balances in the hands of any officer.

10. (1) If an accounting officer disagrees with his Minister upon a matter of importance affecting the financial administration of his department, he shall put his objections in writing and place on record his disagreement with the Minister's decision.

Disagreement with Minister.

(2) If his Minister adheres to his decision, the accounting officer shall accept it and act thereon only on the written instructions of his Minister, making reference to such ruling if the need arises for him to defend his action.

(3) Copies of objections made in accordance with subregulation (1) and of his Minister's instructions shall be forwarded to the Treasury and the Auditor General.

11. The accounting officer shall be answerable to the Public Accounts Committee for the formal regularity and propriety of accounts of all the expenditure out of the votes for which he is responsible.

Accounting Officer answerable to the Public Accounts Committee.

PART II

ACCOUNTS

12. Accounting officers are responsible for the passing of vouchers for payment, the obtaining of grant of credits on the Exchequer Account and the preparation of cheques for payment of such vouchers.

Payments by cheque.

13. (1) A department may be divided into accounting and sub-accounting units according to the number of sections under its control.

Division of department.

(2) An accounting unit is a section of a department where vouchers are passed by its own check staff and vote control division for the preparation of cheques.

(3) A sub-accounting unit is a section of a department where the placing of orders is undertaken, and where payment vouchers are prepared and certified.

(4) Each accounting unit shall have a check staff and an independent internal audit section.

Submission of certified vouchers.

14. Certified vouchers accompanied by schedules of accounts shall be submitted by the sub-accounting unit to the accounting unit to be processed and passed for the preparation of cheques.

Certifying of vouchers.

15. An accounting officer shall ensure that proper arrangements are made at each accounting unit under his control for certifying vouchers to be passed for payment.

Vote control.

16. The officer whose duty it is to sign the certificate on the schedule of accounts shall ensure that funds are available in the vote before certifying the schedule.

Erasures on vouchers.

17. (1) No erasures shall be made on vouchers.

(2) Any necessary corrections of figures or words shall be made by striking out the incorrect figures or words with a single line and writing the correct entry above.

(3) All such corrections shall be initialled by the certifying officer.

Submission of names and specimen signatures of persons authorised to sign cheques.

18. (1) The accounting officer shall submit to the Ministry of Finance, the Auditor General and the State Bankers, the names as well as specimen signatures of persons authorised by him to sign cheques.

(2) The accounting officer shall make adequate security arrangements for the safe custody of stocks of unused cheque forms.

Erasures on cheques.

19. (1) No erasures shall be made on the face of cheques.

(2) Any necessary correction of figures or words shall be made by striking out the incorrect figures and words with a single line and writing the correct entries above.

(3) All such corrections shall be initialled by the officers who sign the cheque.

20. (1) The greatest possible care shall be taken in the selection of officers whose duties involve the handling of cash. Responsibility for cash.

(2) These officers shall be permanent and pensionable officers and where this is not possible the prior approval of the Treasury shall be sought.

21. Accounting officers are responsible for obtaining the necessary grant of credits on the Exchequer Account through the Treasury. Responsibility for obtaining grant of credits.

22. (1) A department on an application in writing to the Treasury by the accounting officer may be given a grant of a credit on the Exchequer Account. Grant of credit on the Exchequer Account.

(2) The application shall be in such form as the Treasury may from time to time direct.

23. When advances are made from the Contingencies Fund, it is the responsibility of the accounting officer to seek a supplementary vote; and when such vote is approved by Parliament and the warrant issued by the Treasury, the accounting officer shall retire the advance against the supplementary vote. Retirement of advances from the Contingencies Fund.

ESTIMATES

Revenue

24. A receiver of revenue shall be appointed by a letter addressed personally to him by the Treasury setting out in detail his duties and responsibilities. Appointment of receivers of revenue.

25. (1) Accounting officers and receivers of revenue shall, before the deadline date stipulated in the Treasury directive, each year submit to the Treasury, on a form approved by the Treasury for the purpose, estimates of the sums of revenue which it is anticipated will be collected by their departments for the following year together with revised forecasts in respect of the current year. Annual submission of estimates of revenue.

LAWS OF TRINIDAD AND TOBAGO

40

Ch. 69:01

Exchequer and Audit

[Subsidiary]

Financial Regulations

(2) Revenue estimates shall be based on existing legislation and on such instructions as may be issued from time to time by the Treasury and shall not anticipate new legislation.

Estimates to be accurately stated.

26. Estimates shall be stated to the nearest dollar and be as accurate as possible and shall be based on the latest current information of actual collections and likely trends including explanations for any marked difference between—

- (a) the original and revised statement for the current year;
- (b) the revised estimate for the current year and the estimate for the following year.

Method of submission.

27. Estimates of revenue shall be submitted, where applicable, in two separate parts—the first in respect of revenue for both Trinidad and Tobago as a whole, and the second in respect of revenue for Tobago only.

Review on estimates of revenue.

28. Accounting officers and receivers of revenue shall review the estimates of revenue for the current year and the following year at the end of September in each year and shall, where important changes appear to be necessary, inform the Treasury forthwith attaching to such information a detailed explanation for the proposed changes.

Arrears of revenue.

29. (1) No head shall be designated “Arrears of Revenue”.

(2) Arrears of revenue received shall be deposited to the appropriate head and sub-head of revenue in the current year’s estimates and interest payment on arrears of revenue shall be treated likewise.

Specific directions by estimates circular.

30. Accounting officers and receivers of revenue shall be notified by the Treasury of any supplementary instructions on the preparation and submission of the estimates of revenue in respect of any year.

PART IV

ESTIMATES

Expenditure

31. Accounting officers shall submit annually to the Treasury estimates of the expenditure which they consider will be incurred by their departments during the following year in accordance with the relevant Treasury directives.

Annual submission of estimates of expenditure.

32. Expenditure estimates shall reach the Treasury not later than the deadline date stipulated in the Treasury directives.

Date for submission.

33. (1) Estimates of expenditure shall provide a realistic forecast of expenditure.

Accuracy and scope of estimates.

(2) All known commitments arising out of implementation of any development programme or execution of any capital works shall be included in the draft estimates submitted to the Treasury.

(3) In the case of any anticipated commitments which may involve the obtaining of the approval of Cabinet, the accounting officer concerned shall seek and obtain such approval.

34. Accounting officers shall carefully scrutinise all items of expenditure to ensure—

Economy in estimating.

- (a) that services which are no longer essential are eliminated;
- (b) that all necessary services are provided at the lowest cost possible; and
- (c) that public funds are spent to the best advantage.

35. Accounting officers shall ensure that all Cabinet decisions which affect their estimates are incorporated in their draft Estimates before their consideration by the Finance Committee of the House of Representatives.

Cabinet decisions to be incorporated in draft Estimates.

from any cause, printed in the draft estimates and no such authority shall be taken to exist until the appropriate Parliamentary sanction has been given to the estimates.

Supporting statements.

37. Except where the Treasury otherwise directs, accounting officers shall forward with the draft estimates a statement in support of each item of personal emoluments showing the names of officers, the date on which increments (if any) will accrue to them, the actual salary payable to each officer in the current year and the provision for the salary of each officer in the next ensuing year.

Separation of recurrent expenditure.

38. Sub-heads shall not contain a mixture of recurrent and non-recurrent expenditure.

Revotes.

39. (1) A revote of unspent moneys may be permitted only with respect to extraordinary expenditure.

(2) Special care shall be taken by accounting officers to ensure that provision is included in the draft estimates submitted to the Treasury for any necessary revotes of extraordinary expenditure.

(3) If between the date of submission of the draft estimates and the date on which the estimates are considered by the Finance Committee of the House of Representatives it is found that—

(a) provision for a revote has been omitted from the draft estimates because it was anticipated that payment would be made in the current year and it has been found that this may not be so; or

(b) a revote has been included in the draft estimates but, in fact, payment will be made during the current year, the Budget Division of the Ministry of Finance shall forthwith be advised by telephone and by confirming memorandum.

Relation of estimates to Appropriation Bill.

40. In order that section 113(2) of the Constitution may be observed, accounting officers shall clearly indicate in respect of each sub-head and item in their draft estimates which sums are to be appropriated by inclusion in the Appropriation Bill for the coming year and which sums are charged upon the Consolidated

Fund under the Constitution or under any existing law of Trinidad and Tobago. In all cases, reference shall be made to the relevant section of the Constitution or Act of Parliament.

Estimates of Statutory Boards and Similar Bodies

41. Subject to any specific directions which may be given by the Treasury, the Regulations governing the estimates of expenditure of departments apply to the preparation and submission of estimates of Statutory Boards and similar bodies, and to the accounting officers of Municipalities, Statutory Boards, Commissions, County Councils and similar bodies.

Regulations governing estimates of Departments to apply.

42. Draft estimates of Municipalities, Statutory Boards, Commissions, County Councils and similar bodies shall be submitted by the Ministries responsible for such bodies to the Treasury not later than the date fixed by the Treasury for the submission of the estimates.

Annual submission of Estimates of Expenditure.

43. (1) Statutory Boards and similar bodies seeking new posts or requiring new services shall submit request for the new posts or services through the appropriate Ministries and the request shall be dealt with in accordance with the procedure provided for by these Regulations.

New posts and services.

(2) Requests for new posts and services shall be submitted by the Statutory Boards or other bodies concerned for consideration in sufficient time for a decision in relation thereto to be taken before the estimates are presented to the House of Representatives.

44. action to collect.

57. (1) In submitting returns of arrears of revenue, accounting officers and receivers of revenue shall indicate any arrears outstanding for more than three months and shall state what action has been taken to collect the arrears.

(2) The State Solicitor shall be instructed to recover long outstanding arrears.

(3) The Permanent Secretary, Ministry of Finance, and the Auditor General shall report to the Minister any undue delays in the collection of revenue.

Arrears of revenue—authority for writing off.

58. (1) In any case where accounting officers and receivers of revenue are of the opinion that further attempts to collect arrears of revenue will be unsuccessful or uneconomical, they shall apply to the Treasury for the arrears to be written off; and all such applications shall be supported with full details.

(2) Where arrears are written off the Treasury shall notify the Auditor General.

59. Accounting officers and receivers of revenue shall ensure that there is collected all revenue due in any financial year within that year and shall collect arrears within three months of the date on which they fall due.

Collection of revenue.

60. If an officer, not being a regular receiver or collector of revenue, comes into receipt of public moneys, he shall pay it without delay to the Treasury, obtaining an official receipt for the amount deposited but, if inconvenient, he shall pay it into a bank and the payment shall be supported by a deposit slip.

Receipt of public moneys by officer not receiver or collector of revenue.

61. No public moneys shall be made use of in any unauthorised way whatsoever; nor may any officer advance, or lend, or otherwise use for his own purposes any sum for which he is accountable to the State.

Public moneys not to be used for officer's benefit.

PART VI

AUTHORITIES FOR EXPENDITURE

62. The General Warrant issued by the Treasury at the beginning of each financial year authorises accounting officers to incur expenditure within the limits of and for the purposes specified in the Appropriation Act and in accordance with Treasury directives.

General Warrant.

63. (1) The Treasury shall, where it reserves control over any expenditure, notify the accounting officers concerned with the expenditure.

Reserved notes.

(2) When an accounting officer considers it necessary to incur expenditure on a reserved sub-head, application shall be made to the Treasury in the following manner or as the Treasury may otherwise direct:

- (a) application for the necessary authority in respect of expenditure anticipated in each quarter shall be made to the Treasury not later than three weeks before the commencement of such quarter and shall be supported by full details and explanations, both of the estimated expenditure for that quarter and of actual expenditure for the last completed quarter, including recurrent, extraordinary and subvention provisions;

- (b) approval of the Treasury shall be obtained before committing Government in respect of extraordinary sub-heads;
- (c) in the case of subvention provisions, details of revenue from services other than Government should be given, showing receipts in the last completed quarter and estimated receipts in the quarter in respect of which the release is required.

Distribution of copies.

64. A copy of the approval to incur expenditure under reserved votes shall be sent to the Ministry concerned, the Comptroller of Accounts and the Auditor General.

EXPENDITURE

65. (1) Expenditure shall be classified in strict accordance with the estimates.

(2) A vote may not be applied to a purpose for which it is not intended.

(3) Expenditure incorrectly charged to a vote shall be disallowed by the check staff of the accounting unit concerned.

Vote book.

66. (1) An accounting officer shall keep an appropriate control over the expenditure of his department to ensure that the amounts provided in the estimates are not exceeded.

(2) In pursuance of his obligations under subregulation (1), an accounting officer shall keep a departmental vote book which shall clearly show at all times in respect of each head, sub-head and item—

- (a) the original amount approved for the year;
- (b) the amount reserved by the Treasury (if any);
- (c) supplementary amounts approved by Parliament;

- (d) credits to the vote;
- (e) transfers to be added (if any);
- (f) transfers to be deducted (if any);
- (g) expenditure to date;
- (h) actual balance on provision;
- (i) outstanding commitments; and
- (j) uncommitted balance of provision.

67. Accounting officers shall ensure that at all times votes are sufficient to meet all commitments, and that the uncommitted portion of any vote will accommodate all anticipated expenditure against the vote for the remainder of the year.

Sufficiency of votes.

68. (1) Where a sub-head of expenditure covers a variety of services or projects, accounting officers shall keep appropriate departmental records to enable them to control the progress of each service or project and shall relate them to the money spent and the amounts due on the service or project.

Records relating work to cost.

(2) Each project shall have a definite portion of the vote allocated thereto and accounting officers shall ensure that the total of the commitments on all projects does not exceed the total vote.

69. (1) Payments shall not be made before they are due.

Utilisation of provision.

(2) The unexpended portion of any sub-head shall not be withdrawn from the Consolidated Fund for the purpose of setting up any reserve to meet impending payments or to be carried to a deposit or suspense account.

(3) Expenditure properly chargeable to the account of a given year shall not be deferred or placed in suspense for the purpose of avoiding an excess on the amount provided in the estimates.

(4) Unallocated stores may not be drawn for use before they are required in order to utilise provision in the estimates which would otherwise lapse at the end of the financial year.
